

Battery Gadsden Cultural Center Presents

Sullivan's Island Award-Winning Author Josephine Humphreys on "Island Time"

Jo Humphreys grew up spending summers on Sullivan's Island and, since 1990, lives here year-round. Jo will talk about her "Island Time" on Sullivan's Island and how the Island inspired and nourished her as a writer.

DATE: Thursday, April 20, 2017
TIME: 6:00-7:00 PM
VENUE: Battery Gadsden Cultural Center
1917 P'On Ave., Sullivan's Island

Jo Humphreys, a Charleston native, is the author of four novels: Dreams of Sleep, Rich in Love, The Fireman's Fair, and Nowhere Else on Earth. She has won the PEN/Hemingway Prize, a Guggenheim Foundation fellowship, the Literature Award of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, and the Southern Book Award. She lives on Sullivan's Island with her husband, Tom Hutcheson, and their dog, Archie.

Battery Gadsden Cultural Center is a 501(c)(3) Charitable Organization. All are welcome and admission is free, although donations are appreciated to help present our programs.

Preserving the culture of art and history on Sullivan's Island

www.batterygadsden.com (843) 883-9545